

ED CROSS

GRAPHIC DESIGNER

It's my desire to learn everything there is to know about the print industry as it relates to graphic design. I'm hungry for new techniques and finding quicker, more effective ways to do things. I'm a highly creative person who thinks in the abstract to solve design problems.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Communications Technologies & Sciences Inc.

Glen Williams 813.468.4202

Functional Graphics Designer responsible for supporting, planning, and design of new communication products for different clients. Participate in translating medical requirements into a conceptual design for a Biomedical Communications Program. This effort required preparing detail concept architectures for marketing purposes. Assisted in development of computer conceptual integrated systems design and worked closely with CTAS Information Technologies. Assisted senior executive staff with development of communications and biomedical marketing programs to potential clients. This effort required a direct on hand working relationship with corporate and client executives.
